EXODUS

THIS SUNDAY

This morning we are privileged to hear from Daniel McDougall. Daniel and his wife Sandi work to befriend international students and researchers at UVic. Having had personal experience of being 'strangers in a strange land', they understand many of the stresses which international students face upon their arrival in Canada. They hope to express what the Bible calls 'Philoxenia' (practical love for the stranger) as a response to how God himself has befriended them.

FROM SLAVERY TO FREEDOM

Exodus is the gospel in the Old Testament - the story of an oppressed, oppressive and idolatrous world and a God who brings freedom. Though chronicling events from thousands of years ago, the story of the Exodus is as fresh and needed today as ever.

We live in a world of oppression and idolatry, dehumanizing ideas and not-so-hidden slavery.

Which means: We need Exodus to be our story. We need the rescuing God of Exodus to be our God.

PRAYER MATTERS

Aimee, our missionary to students in Asia, is with us today! We join Aimee in praising God for a new student who recently decided to follow Jesus! We pray relationships will continue to be formed and strengthened, as she shares the Good News. Locally, persecution is increasing, and Christians face being jailed for their beliefs. So we pray specifically for protection for Aimee, and local believers. We ask that they will be encouraged, and will continue to be faithful witnesses, through difficult circumstances.

For those just meeting Aimee, she was previously part of the Lambrick staff team as a Children's Ministry intern. She is part of the Lambrick family and one of our church's supported missionaries; she works with university students in Asia, through InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, and this Sunday Aimee will spend a few minutes with us to share an update of the past few months of her ministry.
