EXODUS

FROM SLAVERY TO FREEDOM

This Sunday, our pastor Scott Anderson brings us the final lesson from our series on Exodus.

Exodus is the gospel in the Old Testament - the story of an oppressed, oppressive and idolatrous world and a God who brings freedom. Though chronicling events from thousands of years ago, the story of the Exodus is as fresh and needed today as ever.

We live in a world of oppression and idolatry, dehumanizing ideas and not-so-hidden slavery. Which means: We need Exodus to be our story.

We need the rescuing God of Exodus to be our God.

PRAYER MATTERS

Sue Priestley is a long-time missionary with Operation Mobilization. Sue has been part of the International Leadership Team, but is now taking a 3 month break before transitioning into a new position with OM. We give thanks for Sue's many years of faithful service, that her new position has been determined, and that the skill set she has developed continues to be useful.

In Sue's words: "There still a few responsibilities on my plate which I will be doing until late Sept or Oct. But it has been good to be home for most of this break time and to have a normal routine. I have been so grateful for the slower pace and the decrease in emails coming my way. I feel much more ready to step into a new role and see how the next months unfold.

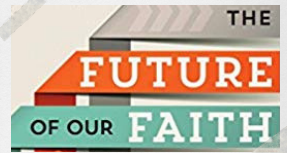

"I will become one of the associate field leaders for OM Canada, working with the team to help with some of the big picture thinking, and delve into what should be good practice in our work, synergy between departments and measurement for growth."

We pray for God's continued blessing on Sue's ministry.
